GO SERV “SPOTLIGHT”
HONORS LONGTIME SAN DIEGO VOLUNTEER

Volunteer brings appreciation of books to San Diego residents

SACRAMENTO - The Governor’s Office on Service and Volunteerism (GO SERV) is featuring Mr. John “Jack” Streeter this week as its Spotlight recipient. For 10 years, Jack volunteered as a docent in the Wangenheim Room at the Central Library in downtown San Diego. There, he shared his love and expertise of rare books to all who visited the Wangenheim Room, which was home to the library’s rare book collection.

“GO SERV honors those people who have made a commitment to improving the lives of others living in their community,” Executive Director of GO SERV, Chuck Supple said. “Mr. Streeter is the perfect example of someone who has shared something of himself with others.”

Jack, 98 years young, welcomed visitors and gave tours of the room, pointing out some of the works in order to illustrate the history of the book. As he relayed stories, spoke knowledgeably of authors or sited the significance of a rare book in today’s world, Jack’s love of books was evident. Jack was also involved in the Friends of the Rancho Branch Library (FRBL), where he served as President and played a vital role in fundraising for FRBL during their annual book sales.

The GO SERV Spotlight is a weekly recognition program, honoring community service organizations or individuals involved in community service. To view the full Spotlight story, please visit the GO SERV Web site at www.goserv.ca.gov.

Spotlight nomination forms, as well as other volunteer opportunities, are also available on GO SERV’s Web site.
